Chaplain's Corner

From pioneer days, the birthday of our nation has been a time to think about spiritual strength and to become awake to opportunities for service and fellowship. At this anniversary of our nation's birthday, there is great sadness in the hearts of those who have lost loved ones in the many conflicts since the first Independence Day. In these days of crisis, each of us must fight the evils of the spirit even as our gallant fighting men and women pursue our war on terrorism.

Isaiah 41:13 For I the Lord will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, fear not; I will help thee.

No prayer requests have been received but let us remember those service people in Afghanistan and other danger spots and in harm's way that need our thoughts and prayers.

May God Bless,

James Fletcher, Chaplain
